MURDER ACCUSED BOASTS OF BEING PRISON CELEBRITY

Killer bartered in jail to trade Jayden secrets for TV

THE man accused of murdering Jayden Phillips bartered prison silence for a celebrity status, it has been claimed. The 21-year-old was charged with the murder of the 12-year-old in December. A prison source (p.16) revealed that the man, who was charged with the murder, "has a celebrity now."

Half a million appeal for children's hospice

A PAINTER supported by the 'Total' network of children's hospices has called for help raising £500,000 for a new children's hospice.

John Brown has launched a bid to raise £500,000 by the end of summer to build a new children's hospice.

Key and Andy Lynn from Woodhouse near Aylesbury visit the children's hospice for a weekend to see the children.

John Brown is a painter and a member of the 'Total' network of children's hospices.

The network is an informal group of children's hospices across the country.

Summer Feature

Be waterwise this summer

Here are some topical tips on making the most of your garden when the heat is on...

RR may have had the warm spring on record, but hot water can also be expected, so we say a little water goes a long way. Here are some tips on making the most of your garden when the heat is on...

By Hannah Kippenham

making these should be kept in mind:

- Waterwise plants: Choose plants that are drought-tolerant. Some examples include: lavender, rosemary, thyme, sage, and oregano.

- Established trees and shrubs: Do not remove these plants. They are drought-tolerant and will survive the summer.

- Timing: Water plants in the early morning or late evening to reduce evaporation.

- Shade: Use mulch to keep the soil cool and retain moisture.

ing. Most other crops need watering at least once a week, and some need more frequent watering. If you are growing crops, it is important to give them enough water to keep them healthy. Some crops, such as tomatoes, need more water than others.

- Shading: Use mulch to keep the soil cool and retain moisture. This is especially important for plants that are sensitive to heat.

Know in dry districts at least 10mm of rain per week is needed to keep plants healthy. If you are growing crops, it is important to give them enough water to keep them healthy.

Some of the best ways to save water in your garden are to use mulch, to water wisely, and to choose drought-tolerant plants.

Most garden watering should be done in the early morning or late evening to reduce evaporation. This is especially important for plants that are sensitive to heat.

If you are short of time, try to water your plants in the early morning or late evening. This will help to reduce evaporation and keep the plants healthy.

spreads further outwards so it is better than a lighter spray.

Automatic irrigation systems are another option to save time and labour. They can be set to water your plants at specific times and for specific durations.

Finally, says Beck, don't let your plants get too dry. If you notice your plants are wilting, it's time to water them.

A comic Rod Stewart show

ANYTHING of Rod Stewart's music genre is considered to be production for tonight's The Night, coming to Oxford's New Theatre from New Day.

Without exception the 52nd, the show follows the story of Rod and Mary who are both in love with each other but don't know it.

She discovered Mary is big Rod Stewart but, as does a deal with the devil to trade his soul with the sign of the cross.

It's a double ending success as each one has its own story to tell but there can only be one final ending.

"It's a journey through Rod's greatest hits" said Jane Lee-Jones who plays Mary in the production.

"It's not a tribute, it's just a great evening of Rod Stewart songs" said a friend of Rod's who's been at the show for 20 years as well. "It is a really fun night out."

Syrian revolution

RETURNING to home, a new Syrian film about the revolution in Syria, is in Oxford at Phoenix Picturehouse on Sunday.

The film follows the story of a 10-year-old girl who is forced to witness the death of her father. The film is a powerful and moving story that is well worth a watch.

Your Hearing is as important as your vision

Having poor hearing can be a lonely place and "talking" to yourself. Hearing the person who you are talking to, the joy of laughing and hearing people who share all of the things that you love and need to share with them. It's all about hearing the things that you love and need to share with them.

New assistant coach to focus on the scrum

LONDON'S Welsh local coach John Barrell said he would not coach the Welsh national team but will help London Welsh, the 'competing' at the Welsh Premiership next season.

On Monday the Exiles assistant manager would join current coach John Barrell and the Welsh Premiership. Barrell will focus on working on the scrum in the Premiership.

Barrell has worked at Bristol and Cardiff Blues and has worked alongside former England international Gwyn Iwan at the Exiles.

Barrell said: "We're very excited to be able to add a player to my coaching and coaching staff."

Unsettled weather called for a very mixed Dutch Grand Prix for Smith

BRANDY Smith had mixed success after finishing eighth in a Dutch Grand Prix characterised by very unsettled weather last week.

World champion Marc Genes was third, followed by Andrea Dovizioso and Dani Pedrosa completing the podium. Smith, who was fifth in the race, was not as successful as he was in a race last week.

A night of downpours delayed the start of the race and the track was dry at the start, forcing the riders to change tyres after seven laps.

UNITED BEGIN PREPARATIONS

Waddock puts players through their paces on first day of training

Assen proves unpredictable for Smith

See inside sport

OXFORD United's preparations for the new Sky Bet League Two season got up and running this week, with the players returning to training on Monday.

The first team squad were put through their paces on the first day with endurance and speed tests.

Outside first, five teams return to the training ground and the players were expected to step up their training as the week progressed.

New signings Danny Rylance, Jonathan Smith, and James Roberts, from Birmingham, join the squad on Monday. Smith's first day of training was his first day as a professional footballer.

Head coach Gary Waddock was pleased to see his players and began preparations. "It is good to have everyone back," he told the club.

"Danny Rylance arrived in a great way and we have Jonathan and James back. Smith's first day of training was his first day as a professional footballer."

"Monday was more about getting the players back into the training ground and we expect them to be back in the squad as a group and we plan to continue to build on the progress we made last season."

Waddock added: "They had progressed to start to
